To

PEARL LANGDON HART

In appreciation of her friendly inspiring guidance and personal, helpful interest in each of us, and in recognition of her numerous contributions to our school beyond line of duty during her long term of service, we the staff, and the senior class gratefully dedicate the 1942 Fare Fac Sampler.

Dedication

In Appreciation

We pause to salute Robert B. Walker, who as assistant principal during the past years at Fairfax High School has so skillfully and decisively guided our school toward higher scholastic standing. For many years Mr. Walker provided the school with efficient financial administration. At certain times, he became acting principal with great versatility and executive ability. Our boys' basketball and football teams knew him as a keen and reliable coach, who contributed much to the success of Fairfax on the courts and on the field.

So, Mr. Walker, though we miss you, we appreciate your fine contributions to our school and wish you the best of luck in your new position.

ROBERT B. WALKER

Home of George Washington

Behind every institution is the lengthening shadow of tradition. This year, 1942, stretches the shadow of traditions of Fairfax High School across the short span of seven years—the traditions of Fairfax County across two hundred years. Those students who edited the first volume set down guiding principles which emphasized the devlopmnt of ladership, scholarship, and character for all those who are to follow in their footsteps through the class rooms of learning.

Foreword

Fare Fac Sampler

Strikingly similar were the first principles taught by precept and example in the lives of two famous citizens of Fairfax County, immortal in the minds of men, George Washington and George Mason. Students today face critical years and responsibilities greater than those faced by any generation since the struggle for independnce. Thus has our course been set in the shadow of the same tradition in which that of our county has sailed with assurance and a firmness of faith. We are thus enabled to point with confidence to the guiding principles of our school—leadership, scholarship and character to preserve for all time the rights of free men.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, of Fairfax High School, wish to express our appreciation to the entire staff of the Fare Fac Sampler for their untiring efforts in making this, the Seventh Volume of our year book, a success, and giving to us another record of our achievements and progress.

We, of the staff of the Fare Fac Sampler, should like to thank Mrs. Hopper and Miss Mergler, our advisers, for their help and suggestions; Mr. McIntyre and Merin-Baliban for their services and cooperation; M. Loeb, for the use of pictures as follows: Gunston Hall, Gadsby's Tavern, Pohick Church, and Home of Lord Fairfax; The McClure Company for their efforts in producing this book, to make it one of which we could be even more proud than in the past; our advertisers who made the book a financial success; and all other groups and individuals who have contributed in any way to the accomplishment of our task.

Best of Luck
